Dear Robert:

I wanted to thank you for your outstanding public relations efforts over the past ten years. You were easily the best PR practitioner that our department has ever worked with.

Your contacts in the legal, business, and mainstream media, along with your determination and persistence, proved extremely valuable to me and my practice. Thanks to your firm, I was fortunate enough to be recognized as a Variety Dealmaker and a Hollywood Reporter Power Lawyer for ten years in a row. Plus, I made the Variety Legal Impact Report during this time and I was named to the Daily Journal's Top 100 Attorneys twice. These awards helped raise my profile, and the enhanced recognition greatly assisted my business efforts.

Some of the other highlights of your outstanding representation include making the cover of Super Lawyers magazine, a feature story in Forbes magazine, obtaining a regular column in Forbes.com, a two-minute feature on KTLA television about my career and motorcycle collection, and interviews in the Wall Street Journal, Los Angeles Times, Reuters, the Los Angeles Business Journal, and appearances on CNBC and Bloomberg TV. Not only did you achieve everything I asked from you, your firm came up with new and innovative ways to present our story to journalists and build our brand.

I strongly recommend you and your firm for public relations services. Other firms talk about the media and make many promises, but you actually get your
